

How the terminal block enters the unified Barrick valuation

$TV = \text{final after-tax margin} \times (1+g) \times (1-g/\text{ROIC stable}) / (\text{terminal WACC}-g)$, then discounted to present. The left panel is a normalized sensitivity; the right panel uses the actual four-model run and excludes non-positive component paths.